

Zom-cupy welcomes the Living and the Undead alike into a peaceful movement to reclaim our public spaces for the enjoyment and use of all, not just the Anti-Zombie factions of the State.

“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”

--The First Amendment

We should honor our proud traditions of free speech, assembly and petitioning the government. These rights should not belong to the Living majority alone!

Did You Know..

- Despite the misinformation you may have heard, last year there were zero fatalities at 'Nightmare on Chicago Street'? And minimal biting?
- Zombies can be a lot of fun at parties and public gatherings?
- You might be a Zombie and not even know it yet? Do you want to stay on the other side of the barricades next year?
- Lurching is good exercise and a family-friendly activity?

What You Can Do:

- Don't let society use propaganda to make you fear your Zombie neighbors!
- Non-violently Zomcupy public spaces in protest of Anti-Zombie exclusion.
- Contact your governmental officials, especially local ones, and remind them that Zombies have 1st Amendment rights too.
- If all else fails, drum circles and picketing can be really annoying and persistent. We're just saying. (Hint hint, policymakers)

“ZOMCUPY CHICAGO STREET” by The Zombie Rights Campaign is released under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 3.0 United States License

ZOM OCCUPY CHICAGO STREET:

Taking Back Elgin for the Living and Undead Alike!

Let's lurch together toward a better tomorrow!

www.zombierightscampaign.org